YOUR VIEWS ON THE PROPOSAL

1. What is your view of introducing a new criminal offence of paying for sexual services? (This is the only mandatory question)

- Fully supportive
- Partially supportive
- Neutral (neither support nor oppose)
- Partially opposed
- Fully opposed
- Don't want to express a view

Please explain the reasons for your response.

Changing societal attitudes against normalisation of purchasing of access to another's body - it is not a sexual act between equals therefore cannot be consented.

2. What is your view of repealing section 46 of the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982: the offence of soliciting for the purposes of prostitution in a public place?

- Fully supportive
- Partially supportive
- Neutral (neither support nor oppose)
- Partially opposed
- Fully opposed
- Unsure

Please explain the reasons for your response.

Something which cannot be truly a 'free choice' cannot be criminalised.

3. What is your view of repealing previous convictions under section 46 of the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982: the offence of soliciting for the purposes of prostitution in a public place?

- Fully supportive
- Partially supportive
- Neutral (neither support nor oppose)
- Partially opposed
- Fully opposed
- Unsure

Please explain the reasons for your response.

To allow people to 'move on' without the shackle of an unjust conviction.

4. What is your view of giving people in prostitution the legal right to support?

- Fully supportive
- Partially supportive
- Neutral (neither support nor oppose)
- Partially opposed
- Fully opposed
- Unsure

Please explain the reasons for your response.

Support is a form of healthcare and we all have a right to access proper health and social care. This would recognise the need for support and ensure it is there.

5. What is your view of including provisions for exiting services in the bill?

- Fully supportive
- Partially supportive
- Neutral (neither support nor oppose)
- Partially opposed
- Fully opposed
- Unsure

Please explain the reasons for your response.

Similar to my previous answer.

6. How should the proposed offence be enforced. Are there any particular techniques which you think should be used or obstacles which might need to be overcome?

High profile publicity to act as a strong deterrent. Every effort to reach the women involved to ensure as many as possible know what the implications would or would not be for themselves to prevent further trauma through new pressures from those who may be controlling them.

7. Do you believe that there are any new policing powers that would be necessary or beneficial for enforcing this offence?

I dont think so.

8. Please indicate which of the following forms of support and/or services you think should be provided for people in prostitution and exiting prostitution (place an x into the brackets of as many options as you agree with):

- Exiting support workers
- Drop in services
- Outreach visits to brothels, saunas and other similar premises
- Specialist medical consultations
- Access to drug and alcohol services
- Access to counselling and psychological treatment services
- Specialist housing schemes for women in crisis
- Support to access education, training or work
- Financial advice, debt support etc
- Other (please give details)

Please explain the reasons for your response and provide examples of best practice.

I'm not sure child protection training includes the over-representation of those with experience of childhood sexual abuse in prostitution. I'm not sure if services outside the main cities ensure awareness of sexual exploitation for staff/volunteers.

9. Please indicate which of the following ways of raising awareness of the new offence you believe to be most effective (choose as many as you agree with):

- Internet and social media advertising
- TV advertising
- Print media advertising
- Billboards in public places and transport
- Leaflets to households
- Materials to support and exiting services for people involved in prostitution
- Materials targeted at areas where prostitution is known to occur
- Materials to health and mental health services
- Materials to further education sector
- Inclusion in secondary education (Relationship, Sexual Health, Parenting classes)
- Other (please give details)

Please explain the reasons for your response.

I agree with all, I've ticked those I think most effective.

10. Do you think legislation is required, or are there are other ways in which the Bill's aims could be achieved more effectively?

Please explain the reasons for your response.

Yes, because just saying 'dont buy' in a society where sex can be bought doesnt make sense. Legislation makes it socially unacceptable and says 'we dont do this'.

Resource implications

11. Taking into account all those likely to be affected (including public sector bodies, businesses and individuals etc), is the proposed Bill likely to lead to:

- a significant increase in costs
- some increase in costs
- no overall change in costs
- some reduction in costs
- a significant reduction in costs
- do not wish to express a view

Please indicate where you would expect the impact identified to fall (including public sector bodies, businesses and individuals etc). You may also wish to suggest ways in which the aims of the Bill could be delivered more cost-effectively.

Equalities

12: Any new law can have an impact on different individuals and groups in society, for example as a result of their age, disability, gender re-assignment, marriage and civil partnership status, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation. What impact could this proposal have on particular people if it became law?

Please explain the reasons for your answer and if there are any ways you think the proposal could avoid negative impacts on particular people.

The evidence suggests more and more women are trafficked for sexual exploitation. Given that purchasing of sex inherently dehumanises the person being 'bought' I think there is a high degree of racism in this trade - if the buyer sees the person as less than human they are less likely to have any regard to that person's agency, and racism is in effect dehumanising and hating another group of people.

Sustainability

13. Any new law can impact on work to protect and enhance the environment, achieve a sustainable economy, and create a strong, healthy, and just society for future generations. Do you think the proposal could impact in any of these areas?

A strong, healthy and just society excludes trade in sexual services, a trade whose existence undermines respect and autonomy for each other. Scotland needs to follow our surrounding countries in adopting the 'nordic model' in order to avoid being like some kind of offshore 'haven' for commercial sexual exploitation. Around 50% Spanish men buy sex - when this is denormalised there is a bonus for the men who do not (the majority in Scotland) in validating them as being 'in the right' - a new law would boost their ability to influence their peers towards better attitudes to women. I do wonder what a health & safety assessment for the 'sex trade' would look like.
