- Fully supportive
- Partially supportive
- Neutral (neither support nor oppose)
- Partially opposed
- Fully opposed
- Don't want to express a view

Please explain the reasons for your response.

We need to create exit strategies for women who have been prostituted and exploited.

2. What is your view of repealing section 46 of the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982: the offence of soliciting for the purposes of prostitution in a public place?

- Fully supportive
- Partially supportive
- Neutral (neither support nor oppose)
- Partially opposed
- Fully opposed
- Unsure

Please explain the reasons for your response.

Women are being exploited, therefore they should not be criminalised, it's the buyer who needs to be stopped. Women need ways out where they will not face further criminality and can rebuild their lives.

3. What is your view of repealing previous convictions under section 46 of the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982: the offence of soliciting for the purposes of prostitution in a public place?

Same reason as above.

- Fully supportive
- Partially supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response.

Women who are leaving prostitution will need support legally and otherwise to rebuild their lives.

- Fully opposed

7. Do you believe that there are any new policing powers that would be necessary or beneficial for enforcing this offence?

8. Please indicate which of the following forms of support and/or services you think should be provided for people in prostitution and exiting prostitution (place an x into the brackets of as many options as you agree with):

- Exiting support workers
- Drop in services
- Outreach visits to brothels, saunas and other similar premises
- Specialist medical consultations
- Access to drug and alcohol services
- Access to counselling and psychological treatment services
- Specialist housing schemes for women in crisis
- Support to access education, training or work
- Financial advice, debt support etc
- Other (please give details)

Please explain the reasons for your response and provide examples of best practice.

I cannot comment meaningfully on the drop in services, outreach, specialist medical consultations - the others seem quite reasonable and necessary.

- Internet and social media advertising
- TV advertising
- Print media advertising
- Billboards in public places and transport
- Leaflets to households
- Materials to support and exiting services for people involved in prostitution
- Materials targeted at areas where prostitution is known to occur
- Materials to health and mental health services
- Materials to further education sector
- Inclusion in secondary education (Relationship, Sexual Health, Parenting classes)
- Other (please give details)

Please explain the reasons for your response.

My only concern is that this subject is very mature for children. They are already inundated with all sorts of 'disaster' topics which rob them of their innocence. A local community centre hosted a 'Family Fun Day' with members from "Freedom from Torture" whilst that is incredibly worthy and needing support I didn't want to explain to my 8 year old what that meant so we didn't go. I am also an RSHP abolitionist in Scottish schools, so I definitely don't think it should be in there. This is not about its worthiness but about the stepping over boundaries and not anticipating where children are with these things. Kids cannot unsee or unknown things once introduced.

10. Do you think legislation is required, or are there are other ways in which the Bill's aims could be achieved more effectively?

Please explain the reasons for your response.

Resource implications

11. Taking into account all those likely to be affected (including public sector bodies, businesses and individuals etc), is the proposed Bill likely to lead to:

- a significant increase in costs
- some increase in costs
- no overall change in costs
- some reduction in costs
- a significant reduction in costs
- do not wish to express a view

Please indicate where you would expect the impact identified to fall (including public sector bodies, businesses and individuals etc). You may also wish to suggest ways in which the aims of the Bill could be delivered more cost-effectively.

Equalities

12: Any new law can have an impact on different individuals and groups in society, for example as a result of their age, disability, gender re-assignment, marriage and civil partnership status, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation. What impact could this proposal have on particular people if it became law?

Please explain the reasons for your answer and if there are any ways you think the proposal could avoid negative impacts on particular people.

Sustainability

- 13. Any new law can impact on work to protect and enhance the environment, achieve a sustainable economy, and create a strong, healthy, and just society for future generations. Do you think the proposal could impact in any of these areas?

Women not needing medical care as a result of trauma from rape (crudely) will mean less resources needed from health services. Healthy functioning members of society make for a more sustainable world.
